

Introduction to Midway Cemetery Census
Taken by Zilla and Dewitt Spencer, April 2005

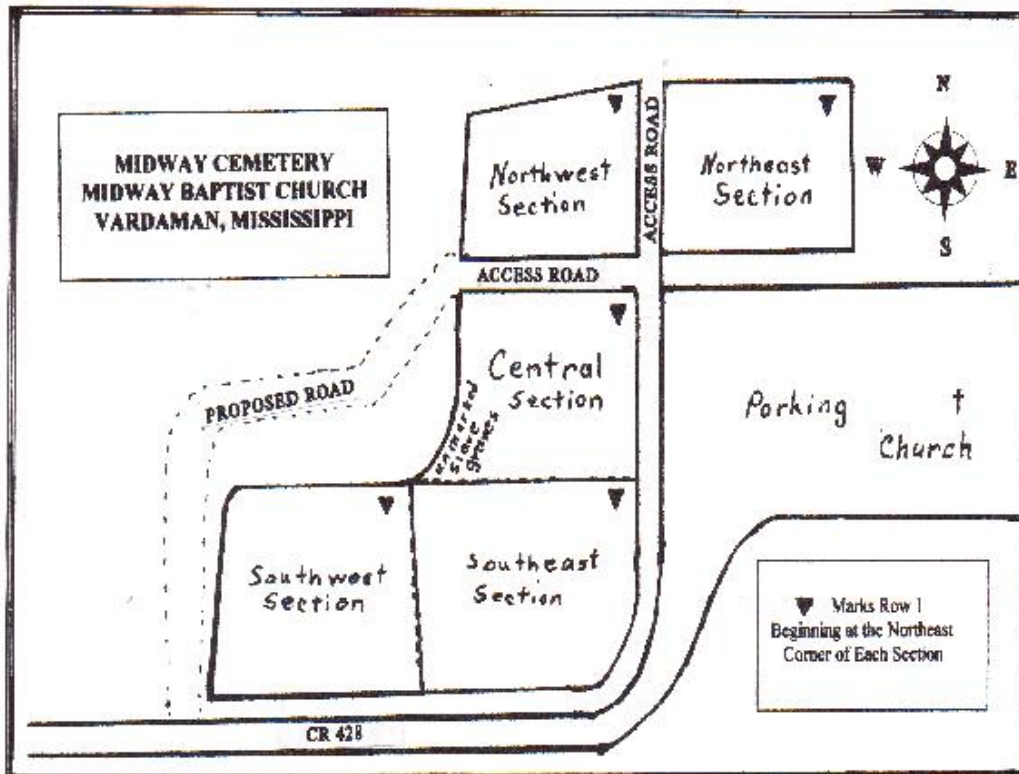

Midway Church is located approximately six miles south of Vardaman, Ms, off Highway 341; exit left on county road 428. The cemetery is adjacent to the church, which was organized in 1848, four years before Calhoun County was formed, and was originally in Chickasaw County. Most members of my family- Inmons and Morgans and kin- are buried here, and I don't think I've missed a Memorial Day (always first Sunday in May) my entire life. A transcription of Hillcrest or Vardaman Cemetery by former resident James Morgan (Sonny) Young is our model. Seeing his excellent work on that census inspired us to undertake the same thing for Midway. We are indebted to Sonny for his pattern and his help with the tables and other technical aspects of our transcription. I also want to acknowledge the help of my husband, Dewitt Spencer, cousins Norman Griffin and Bobby Inmon and others who assisted in many ways.

We tried to put in the notes section just the information appearing on the tombstone or marker with additional information within brackets. For easier reading, quotation marks were placed around quotes although they may not have appeared on the tombstone. I know we made many mistakes, and we will appreciate your letting us know those for correction. Contact Zilla Spencer, 382 Hwy 341 S, Vardaman, Ms, 38878; phone 662-682-7732 or e-mail at zillad@tycom.net. We intend to have hard copies of this census available at the memorial and also to have it placed on the website of the Calhoun County, Ms, Historical and Genealogical Society.

For census purposes the cemetery was divided into five sections. The Northeast Section is located to the east of the south access road entering the parking lot and proceeding to the north gate. This area has few graves. It is populated with pine and other trees. The Northwest Section is the area to the west of the north-south access road and to the north of the access road running east and west. The Central Section is the area south of the east-west access road and running south to a line ending with the Hermit Morgan monument as the southern-most marker. The Southeast Section begins on a line made by the Tabb monument and runs uphill, albeit in a southerly direction, and each row begins in a more easterly direction. This section ends where the woods close in slightly on the west side and the Southwest Section begins with the Boyette markers. Note: In the large open area west of the Central and part of the Southeast Sections there were many slave markers and possibly other graves. At one time cedar crosses stood above the slave graves but time has destroyed these. The last monument currently in the Southwest Section is that of Billy Thomas (Tommy) Penick, Jr. In making the census each row was begun in the northeast corner (as indicated on the map). The reference cell to the left of each name indicates the section, row, and site the grave is located. Thus CR3S36 for Willie M. Caples indicates his marker is located in the Central Section, Row 3, and Site 36.
