

HILLCREST CEMETERY

First Street and East Avenue, Vardaman, Mississippi
Latitude 33° 53.048' North, Longitude 89° 10.422 West
As of November 5, 2004

For the purpose of this listing, the following diagram of the cemetery was used to develop the grave reference numbers used here.

This transcription was made by James Young, 1014 Aspen Court, Fort Walton Beach, FL 32547. I tried to ensure that the spelling in these lists is the same as on the grave markers. I apologize for any errors. Most of this information was obtained on September 3-4, 2004, with a follow-up visit on November 5, 2004.

The names in the main listing are arranged in the approximate order of their locations. Quadrant and row numbers were arbitrarily assigned to make it easier to locate specific graves. The listing of names in a row always begins at the north end of that row. The proximity of graves, as shown by the reference number sequence in the main listing, may provide clues concerning family relationships, and the alphabetical listing in the index helps to locate specific names.

In many cases, there is a significant space between adjacent grave markers (which may or may not indicate unmarked graves), and the rows are not neatly aligned. Information in the listing enclosed in brackets [] contains notes or comments and was not inscribed on the grave marker. All information not in brackets was inscribed on the marker.

HOW TO USE

Locate a name in the index and note the reference number. Then go to the main listing and find the complete information associated with that reference number.

I'd come, I'd come if I could but find a way, but would not fears and grief be barriers? And when you hear a song or see a bird I love, please do not let the thought of me be sad for I am loving you just as I always have. You were so good to me. There are so many things I wanted still to do, so many things to say for you. Remember I did not fear it was just leaving you that was so hard to face. The voice is mute and still the heart that loved us well and true. Ah, bitter was the trial to part from one so good as you. You are not forgotten loved one, nor will you ever be. As long as life's memory lasts we will remember thee. We miss you now, our hearts are sore; as time goes by we miss you more. Your loving smile, your gentle face, no one can fill your vacant place. I could not stand another day to laugh to love to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found our peace at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a life, a kiss, oh yes these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me. God wanted me now, he set me free. [Black stone bench facing southwest]
